Nick La Riviere and The Best Laid Plans – Where We Go | Soulful

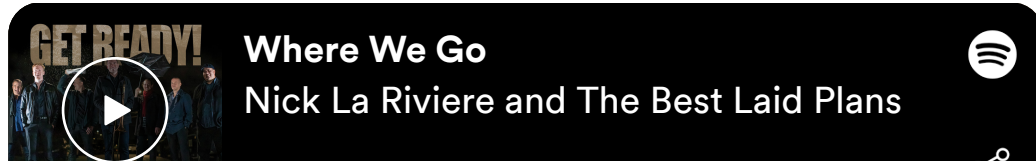

Nick La Riviere and The Best Laid Plans is a band of many talented artists that have always believed in putting their best foot forward when it comes to music. Through their timeless classics, they have won the hearts of many rock listeners who are still in love with the traditional, old, feel-good rock music that still feels contemporary.

This time, the group is back with the release of their song called Where We Go. Where We Go is a mellow track that pleases your senses from the very start itself. With a unique tune that kicks off the pace of the song in an unexpected way, the whole vibe of the song keeps getting better every second. You would want to listen to the song, again and again, to fully grasp the goodness it has to offer, 'cause there is quite some. Through authentic soundscapes, Where We Go raises the bar so high.

The great thing about the song is how it makes you feel, more than anything else. The vocals present a pleasant picture and add to the soulfulness of the track even more. Jovial beats, pleasant pace, and smoothly flowing tunes make it easier and inevitable to fall in love with the beauty that this track is.

You would want to listen to this track on a sombre day where you feel like listening to something fresh yet oddly familiar and warm, 'cause that's how the song makes you feel.
